Subject: - Violation of the Infant Milk Substitutes Feeding Bottles, and Infant Foods (Regulation of Production, Supply and Distribution) Act 1992, and Amendment Act 2003 (IMS Act) by E-marketing company www.firstcry.com and a baby food company M/s PZ Cussons Australia Pty Ltd.

Respected Sir,

The IMS Act Sections 3 and 4 prohibit all forms of promotion, advertisements and incentives for marketing of Infant Milk Substitutes, Feeding Bottles, and Infant Foods. Despite this provision in the law, the E-commerce companies continue to promote and advertise these products.

IMS Act section 2(f) states, "Infant food" means any food (by whatever name called) being marketed or otherwise represented as a complement to mother's milk to meet the growing nutritional needs of the infant [after the age of six months and up to the age of two year;]. However, baby food companies and baby food manufacturers promote infant foods to be used before 6 months of age.

The IMS Act Section 6 specifies information on containers & labels of Infant milk substitutes and Infant foods. But baby food companies contravene these provisions.

I would like to bring to your notice a violation of the IMS Act by the E-marketing company www.firstcry.com and a baby food company M/s PZ Cussons Australia Pty Ltd.

During a routine monitoring activity, BPNI detected that infant food "Rafferty's Garden Sweet potato carrot & apple" is being advertised and promoted on E-marketing company www.firstcry.com for 4+ months of infants. This is a violation of IMS Act Section 2(f),3(a) and 3(c).

After procuring the above-mentioned product from www.firstcry.com, BPNI analysed its label and documented that Section 6 (1) (a)(b)(c)(d), Section 6 (2)(a)(b) of the IMS Act are being violated by the companies which is evident from the findings given below.

1. Label of the container doesn't have words "Important Notice" and other particulars as mandated in the section 6 (1) of the IMS Act like a statement "mother's milk is best for your baby" in capital letters; a statement that infant milk substitutes or infant food should be used only on the advice of a health workers as to be need for its use and the proper method of its use; a warning that infant milk substitutes or infant food is not the sole source of nourishment of an infant; and the instructions for its appropriate preparation and a warning against the health hazards of its inappropriate preparation.

As a policy, BPNI does not accept funds of any kind from the companies manufacturing baby foods, feeding bottles etc. and from organization/industry having conflicts of interest.

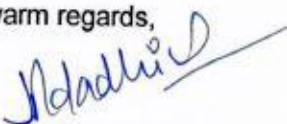

2. Label of the container have contents which are prohibited in the section 6 (2) of the IMS Act like picture and graphic of a baby with a spoon & fresh fruits and vegetables; phrases and words designed to increase the saleability of the product e.g. "contains premium vegetables, no preservatives/ colour / flavour, salt, sugar, GM ingredient." Another phrase "We know that grown-ups want the best for their babies, so this pouch contains yummy, premium, natural pureed fruit and vegetables + nothing else. It's the next best thing to homemade food and tastes delicious!"

We are submitting this information to you with a request to take necessary legal action against above mentioned infant food manufacture and E-marketing Company. Photos of the label are attached with this letter.
